Continues His Denunciation of Democratic Candidate for Mayor of New York.

HE ALSO ATTACKS BANNARD.

Declares There Is No Difference Between the Tammany Kettle and The Woodruff Pot.

New York, Oct. 18 .- William It Hearst, Independent number for mayor, and Otto T. Bannard, Republican nominee, both of whom are heading the fusion ticket, dashed through Barlem tonight and delivered a serieof rapid fire specches in support of their candidacy. Hearst made four addresses and Bannard three issues. Hearst spoke at length and continued his denunciation of William Gaynor, Democratic nomines, although he for the first time, referred to Bannard as a machine candidate.

"I have got into this fight to defeat both Gaynor and his Tammany machine and Bannard and his Woodrun machine," he said, "and I do not want.

Mr. Bannard to forget in the heat and excitement of the campaign that he is just as much a machine candidate as just as much a machine candidate as Judge Gaynor. He rmy not be the candidate of the same machine, but he is the candidate of the same kind of a machine, and I for one cannot see the difference in the blackness between the Tamanny kettle and the Wood-

Mr. Parsons' statement of the deal between Cannon and the Republican machine with Murphy and the Tammany machine can be believed. Mr. Bannard was named, not to defeat Tammany, but to elect Tammany. If Mr. Bannard is elected. Mr. Woodruff's pettrusts will get the city."

Hearst defended himself against Gayror's remark that he was endorsed by Tammany when he ran for governor against Hughes.

"Grover Cleveland," he said, "was a consistent foe of Tammany Hall, yet he ran for governor of New York as much a foe of Tammany Hall the year before.

"Why did not Judge Gaynor do as I did? Why did not Judge Gaynor do as I did? Why did not Judge Gaynor denounce Murphy and McCarren? He had plenty of time to do it before McCarren got sick."

Hearst's attack on Bannard tonight gives the campaign, a new angle, for herotofore both have maintained what might be called a truce in view of the fact that both are attempting to defeat Tammany.
